WHAT IS EHTTA?

The European Historic Thermal Towns Association (EHTTA) is a European network bringing together more than 50 historic thermal destinations across over 20 countries.

Certified as a Cultural Route of the Council of Europe, EHTTA promotes the preservation and enhancement of Europe's thermal heritage, sustainable development, and wellbeing, connecting towns, cultures and traditions across the continent.

OUR MISSION

Preserve Europe's thermal heritage
Promote sustainable tourism
Foster health and wellbeing
Connect towns and communities

WHAT WE DO

EHTTA develops European projects, international events and promotional initiatives that highlight the importance of historic thermal towns in Europe's past, present and future.

We work closely with institutional partners, destinations and stakeholders to strengthen the visibility and impact of the thermal sector.

WHY HISTORIC THERMAL TOWNS?

They represent a unique cultural and architectural heritage.

They contribute to people's health and wellbeing.

They promote sustainable and responsible tourism.

They generate economic development and social cohesion

JOIN US

EHTTA believes in the power of cooperation and knowledge sharing to build a more sustainable future for Europe's historic thermal towns.
